Advancing Opioid Stewardship: Strategies to Save Lives

reduction strategies with your community: Naloxone Keeps the Circle Strong

- Set goals and evaluate opioid prescribing using the opioid stewardship automation tool
- Learn what opioid stewardship is and why it is important:

Advancing Opioid Stewardship: Strategies to Save Lives

- Demonstrate commitment to opioid stewardship
- Ensure accountability and standardization in your opioid stewardship program through data and oversight
- · Promote staff well-being and resiliency
  - Implement telemedicine and health IT innovations
    - Develop provider champions

DATA-DRIVEN Monitor, track and report

- key performance indicators
  - Evaluate opioid interventions and practices and identify systems-level quality improvement strategies with the IHS Opioid Surveillance Dashboard (OSD)

- Build trusted relationships through shared decision-making
- Integrate clinical knowledge and evidence based strategies: 1) IHS Essential Training in Pain and Addictions; 2) Pain and OUD Webinar Series; 3) Indian-Country ECHO Programs

EAM-BASED

- Offer patient-centered care with adequate patient appointment times
- Review educational outreach program chronic pain management materials

- · Support the workforce in managing non-cancer pain in the care of American Indians and Alaska Natives
- Use and share the Substance Use Warmline with other health care professionals for on-demand clinical consultation
- · Use Integrated Problem List (IPL), iCARE and functional status assessments like PEG-3 and PSEQ to support patient goal-setting
  - Learn how to start the naloxone conversation

• Know that word choice matters
• Know that word choice matters
• Know that word choice matters

To learn more about how Indian Health Service (IHS) is improving the way opioids are prescribed, visit IHS National Committee on Heroin, Opioids and Pain Efforts (HOPE Committee).